

Oh, Holy Child! by Carolyn Gifford

As told by prophets long ago a newborn King will come!
To bless the world with holiness; God's own begotten Son.
A King sent down from heav'n to reign with men on earth.
The prophecies bore witness of the baby Jesus' birth.

Oh, Holy Child, Son of God.
A mission so divine, to preach goodwill, to show the way
And bless a life like mine, Chosen One!
Good shepherd and Redeemer of the grave,
The Prophets testify to all through love, He's come to save!

His mother shall be Mary,
A virgin pure and fair!
Content to do the Father's will
Extending love and care.
A baby born in Bethlehem,
A gift from God above.
This Heavensent Messiah is the Prince of Peace and love!
