

The Sweetest Peace by C. Michael Perry

© 2000 by C. Michael Perry

A solemn silence; A whispered word;
The simple calm you feel as prayers are heard.
Within these walls, these halls of hallowed stone
Comes the sweetest peace you've ever known.

The Spirit hovers; the veil grows thin;
The love surrounding you can banish sin.
One simple fact, this act of Charity
Brings the sweetest peace to those who see.

The Sweetest Peace the temple freely gives!
As joys increase the soul awakes and lives!
The calm release of earthly care and trial
Will come with service in the temple
And with service in the temple God will smile.

That solemn silence; that whispered word
Comes from the Holy Ghost as prayers are heard!
Within these walls, these halls that help you grow,
Comes the sweetest peace you'll ever know.
The Sweetest Peace you'll ever know!
