

The Children of Christ by C. Michael Perry

© 1995 by C. Michael Perry

There was a day in a time gone by where God's people lived as one!
No rich, no poor, ev'ry man a friend; love was brighter than the sun!
The Son of God was known to them, they feasted on His word and deed!
For peace and hope and happiness and joy was all they'd ever need

A hundred years, then a hundred more would be lived in righteousness.
No strifes, no lies, no contentions there in the land that God did bless.
They understood the love of Christ, they feasted on each tender word!
It's up to us, who live today to hear the voice they heard.

If you listen to your heart you'll hear when the Lord is there!
Will a look into the eyes of a Child of God help reflect His tender care?
To live with Him and love like Him our work must now be done.
The Children of Christ are heirs to the loving Kingdom of the Son!

Just listen to your heart to hear that the Lord is there!
Look into the eyes of a Child of God to reflect his tender care.
Live like Him and love like Him until we are as one.
The Children of Christ are heirs to the loving Kingdom of the Son!
The Children of Christ are heirs to the loving Kingdom of the Son!