

WE'RE NOT ALONE by C. Michael Perry

A hopeful word; a gentle touch; a loving deed...

They mean so much.

A prayer, a supplication for someone in need...

God grants us such.

Each simple thought; each gesture we extend;

each comfort that we give can earn a friend.

Each moment that we take to touch another life
will bless our own.

We're not alone!

Each life we touch will touch one more;

a ring that grows ... we can't ignore.

The spirit whispers to each heart;

the Spirit knows we've made a start.

Each simple thought; each gesture we extend;

each comfort that we give can earn a friend.

Each moment that we take to touch another life
will bless our own.

We're not alone!

Touch those unknown,

it's then we've grown!

We're not alone!
